PORTRAITS OF THE CAMDIDATES.—We have received from Messrs. Middleton & Strowbridge, beautiful lithographic portraits of the several candidates now before the public for Presidential honors. They are of different sizes and styles, yet all are neatly and artistically executed, and will make fine ornaments for parlor and counting-room. See advertisement in another column.

SECOND STORT.—The offer of $500 for a sat-Second Storr.—The offer of $500 for a sat-isfactory theory of the phenonemon of Second Sight still stands in our advertising columns; and we understand that though several per-sons applied at the Box Office of Wood's Theater for that tempting sum, each appli-cant, after five minutes conversation with Mr. Heller, felt satisfied that he had not dis-covered a secret which its consession with covered a secret which its possessor insists to be a trick of the simplest kind. The thing is puzzling in the extreme.

Distillers Burned Yesterday Afternoon. The Phoenix Distillery, owned by Mossrs. Holter, Austin & Co., and located at the foot of Race-street, took fire yesterday afternoon about half-past four o'clock, and was badly damaged. The Fire Department was promptly on the ground, and with its usual activity succeeded in quenching the flames. The fire was caused by the bursting of a still-tub, and caused a loss of about $8,000, upon which there is an insurance of $3,000 in the Union Insurance Company.

OUTRAGE UPON A COUPLE OF CHILDREN BY OUTRAGE UPON A COUPLE OF CHILDREN BY A PAIR OF AMERICAN TARQUINS.—An outrage was coumitted a day or two ago upon a couple of girls, about twelve years of age, which, so far as we know, is without a parallel in the history of our city. One of the parties is a husband and a father, the other unmarried, and both undeserving the human shape. Their Tarquin-like purpose, however, was partially prevented by the screams of the children, who immediated informed their parents of what had taken place. They have left the city, pursued by the fathers of the children, but we carnestly hope they may be brought to justice, until which time we with.

THE RACE TO-DAY,—The second trotting-match between "Kate Denham" and "Tom Thumb," for $1,000, mile heats, best three in five, to wagons, will take place to-day over the Cincinnati Trotting Park. The mare, in her last contest with the same horse, won the first, third and fifth heats, but the race was closely contested. In addition, "Lady Buckstone," "Nelly" and "Ned Forrest" have been entered for a purse of $50, mile heats, best three in five, to harness.

Since the above was in type we have been informed that "Tom Thumb" is quite lame and will not go to-day, the match on this account being indefinitely postponed. The other race, however, will take place and probably prove quite interesting.

Those who are desirous of witnessing the sport, are teminded that the cars leave the Hamilton and Dayton Depot at 2:23 and 3:50, direct for the track.

MEETING OF THE SUPERVISORS OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The Board of Supervisors of the Fire Department held their regular meeting last Saturday evening. Two bids were received for the new steam fire-engine, one from Neafie & Young, of Philadelphia, and the other from A. & B. Latta, of this city. A motion was made to contract with the Messra. Latta, but the Board being equally divided, the matter was deferred until after the State Fair, at which several steam fire-engines will be exhibited.

services were opened yesterday by the Chairman, who read one of the Psalms of David.

The intercession of those present was asked for three persons, one a lady who was wasting away with consusption, another, a young man who was once a Christian, but who has back-eliden, and a third who was an avowed infide!

If there is one thing more than another that proves the Christian spirit actuating those who attend the prayer meetings, it is the disinterestedness exhibited in asking prayers for those who do not want them. In almost every instance these requests are made without any application on the part of those who are benefited by them, thereby exhibiting an unsolicited interest in the welfare of others which is truly commendable. We are commanded to love our neighbor as ourself, but this is doing more: it is loving him better.

A clergyman from Prussia, who had traveled through Ireland, spoke of the revival, there, as being productive of the most happy results; and concluded by requesting the American people not to judge of German theology, by the Teutonic infidelity of this country.

Two clergymen stated that they had received letters from Africa, in which they were requested to ask the brethren in Cincinnati to pray for the success of the Gospel in that dark land, which is about the darkest spot of God's heritage, judging from the complexion of its inhabitants.

The benediction was then pronounced.

Meeting of the Irish-Americans of Ciacinnati at Hannan's Hall.

The meeting of the Irish-Americans last night, at Hannan's Hall, to take into consideration the best means of aiding in the erection of the proposed monument to the memory of Patrick Sarsfield, to be erected at Limerick, Ireland, was quite largely attended. Colonel B. M. Moore was appointed President, and Dennis J. Toohey, Secretary.

A letter from the Committee on the Sarsfield Testimonial, at Limerick, and an address to the Irish people from the same source, were read, urging the matter upon their serious consideration. The address closes thus:

"The sectarian hate and political bitterness that mingled with the strife and struggle in which the brave Sarsfield acted so chivalrous which the brave Sarsheld acted so chivalrous a part, have long since happily passed away; and it now but remains for us to show that we know how to appreciate the exalted qualities of a man, whose character supplies the most perfect type of the Irish gentleman and soldier, and whom foreign nations have unheattatingly pronounced to be, the greatest glory of his native land."

The Testimonial Committee were of the unhesitatingly pronounced to be, the greatest glory of his native land."

The Testimonial Committee were of the opinion that if the Irish-American population were made properly acquainted with the project, that they would feel but too happy to subscribe to the fund, which is necessary to the fulfilment of the patriotic undertaking they have in view.

To this end the meeting of last evening was called. After the letter and address had been read, Mr. J. H. Green was called upon and made a few remarks, in which he spoke somewhat despairingly of the project, and said that although he might, at some future time, give the subject all the consideration it demanded, he was not now prepared to regard it in the same light as the Testimonial Committee.

gard it in the same light as the Testimonial Committee.

Mr. Halpin spoke in somewhat the same strain, and said he would only be willing to aid in the erection of a Sarsfield Monument when the epitaph of Robert Emmet had been written. Both these speakers regarded the battle of the Boyne as a blot upon Irish history, and this aroused Patrick McGroarty, Esq., who had been previously repeatedly called for, and now arose and made a spirited and cloquent speech, which lasted about an hour, and was frequently interrupted by the loudest applause.

and eloquent speech, which lasted about an hour, and was frequently interrupted by the loudest applause.

He said the defeat of the Boyne was brought about by the poltroon who lead the Irish forces, and insisted that the shame, if any, should fall upon the cowardly head who deserted his army, and left the Irish to take care of themselves. The best manner by which the principle was to be kept alive in the breast of Irishmen, he said, was to continually remind them of the violation of the treaty made by Limerick, and if upon that treaty-stone a monument to Sarsheld were erected, it would stand there through all the coming ages an eternal protest against British tyranny. The epitaph of Emmett, said the speaker, has been already written by the hand of God in every true Irishman's heart, and his innate love of liberty showed how fully he appreciated the principle that brought Emmett to the scaffold and induced Sarsheld to catch the blood that flowed from the wound that destroyed his life, and hold it up to God, exclaiming. "Oh, that this had been for Ireland!" Indirectly it was for Ireland, and the Irish only unsheathed their swords to bury it in the bosom of some for to liberty, and never again did it reach its scabbard until the object had been accomplished.

Mr. Michael Welsh then arose and stated that he was willing to go to work practically to reply to the appeal of the Committee. and

Mr. Michael Welsh then arose and stated that he was willing to go to work practically to reply to the appeal of the Committee, and would head a subscription list with his name, whereupon Mr. McGroarty moved that a committee of five be appointed to report immediately a plan to secure the co-operation of Irishmen of this city in promoting the end desired by the Sarsfield Testimonial Committee at Limerick.

The Chairman appointed Michael Welsh, P. McGroarty, Major J. W. Burke, George P. O Donnell and Dr. Dougherty, who immediately retired, and in a short time returned with the following resolutions:

The Committee recommended the adoption of the following resolutions:

THE SARSFIELD TESTIMONIAL, AND PARTY MOVEMENTS.—We have received from an Irish resident of the First District a communication, protesting against the attempt, which the writer says has been made, to hitch the testimonial meeting on to the Pendleton reception. The writer attributes this to the Enquirer, and refers to notices in that paper as evidence. He gives great credit to Mr. Pendleton, and says that he needs no such illegitimate aids to demonstrate the high estimation in which he is held in this community; but he protests earnestly against permitting a patriotic testimonial to an frish hero, to be used for any political purposes.

As the matter has already been arranged, though after a variety of announcements in the papers, that must be damaging to both meetings, and as the communication is somewhat long for our limits, we make this abstract of its contents.

To the Editors of the Bully Press:

I have no desire to obtain $500, as very easily I might, by calling at Wood's Theater, with the explanation of a thing so simple as Heller's Second Sight. It is the result of three different modes of operation: 1, Leading questions. 2. A set of reflecting mirrors.

3. Collusion. No one of these methods will explain the whole; but the three will. Heave it to your readers to judge at which of the server eral portions of the experiment each of the above means is used.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF THE LATE JOHN WALKER.—An entry was filed by consent of the parties, adjourning the final proceedings in this case to the 25th inst., and giving the executors up to that time to file their report, it being agreed that in the meen time they should make no collections.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—At their regular diurnal session yesterday morning, the County Commissioners passed orders amounting in the aggregate to $2,827 29, of which $215 39 were paid to George Fries for pay-roll on the new lail; $7 50 to Thomas Conway for labor on the Sharpsburg-road; $13 50 to John F. Dair & Co. for articles for Work-house; $97 75 to Cincinnati Fuel Company for coal for Court-house, and $2,493 15 to E. A. Ferguson for coats and expenses in the case of McLean vs. the Commissioners of Hamilton County. No other business was transacted.

Onio White Sulphur Springs.—Arrangements have been made with the Little Miami, Columbus and Xenia, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway Companies, to sell tickets to the Ohio White Saiphur Springs, for the round strip to Lewis Center and return, for $4. A ride of five hours, for so small a sum, to one of the most agreeable watering-places in the country, should, and we have no doubt will, render this resort more popular than ever to those who desire to escape from the Pandemonium-like heat of our sweltering city.

Heavy Robbery.—A man, whose name we were unable to learn, had his pocket picked of bank-hills and notes to the amount of $4,000, yesterday afternoon, at the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Daytou Railway Depot.

Habras Conpus.—We suppose that if there is one principle of the old English common law which has obtained a universal sanction in this country, it is that a plea of autre fois acquit, or a previous conviction, is a bar to all further proceedings against a criminal for any particular offense. The Constitution of the United S'ates, as well as that of each

Notwithstanding this, however, a few modern Solons, or rather Dogberries, in this vicinity, have been adopting an adverse practice, fining men for offenses for the commission of which they have already been convicted, and paid the penalties prescribed by statute. The pretense is that the city officials are not bound to recognize a conviction by a Justice of the Peace, and sics sersa;—the one fining for offenses against the municipality, and the other for those against the Commonwealth. Now, it often so happens that the same thing may be punished by both the general laws of the State, and the ordinances of the city, and it is contended not only by Justices of the Peace, who are elected simply because they are a necessity, and supposed to know an law, but by Judges of higher Courts, who are presumed to have read at least half a dozen elementary volumes on that subject, dozen elementary volumes on that subject, that the party may be fined for a violation of both of these, though but one misdemeanor may have been committed.

The legality of this method of procedure, we are glad to learn, will now be investigated, and, we hope, the practice will receive a check.

The RAGE To-DAY.—The second trotting match between "Kate Denham" and "Yon Thumb," for $1,090, mile heats, best three in five, to wagons, will take place to-day over the Cincinnati Trotting Fark. The mare, in her last contest with the same horse, won the state, the state of the Committee recommended the adoption the following resolutions:

Stone, "Welly" and "Welf Forrest" you have been informed that "Tom Thumb" is quite lane and will not go to-day, the match on this account being indefinitely postponed. The other race, however, will take place and probably prove quite interesting.

Legislature to pronounce sentence in such cases, he is as much a creature of the State as a Justice of the Pence or a Circuit Judge, and his judgments must be equally respected. If this is not a correct view of the subject, it will not do to say that the prosecution is, in one instance, in the name of the city, and in the other, in the name of the Commonwealth. Whence came the power to prosecute in the name of the city? From the State. Can the Legislature, by changing a form, invalidate the plain principle of the Constitution? We think hardly; for if it could, it might order prosecutions in the name of the State, the county and the preciset, as well as the city, and the penalty be inflicted four times. Such a supposition, or rather a necessary conclusion, would be fruitful of rather more tyranny than would be consistent with American liberty.

RUNAWAY .- A horse attached to an express-wagon, the property of Mr. Henry Mit-tendorf, ran away on Sixth-street, yesterday, breaking the vehicle into fragments, but doing no other damage. The fright was oc-casioned by noise from several street-corner politicians, who were arguing the relative merits of Bell, Douglas and Breckinridge.

Fire.— Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock an out-house in a yard occupied by Mr. Frost, on Scott-street, between Fourth and Fifth, took fire from some coals that had been thrown in the vicinity, and was entirely consumed. The loss, however, did not exceed $20.

POLICE COURT,—Four or five petty cases were tried before Mayor Foley yeaterday, but none of them deserve particular notice.

A PECULIAR CRIME AND ITS PECULIAR RE-BULTS.—A man named Joseph Barstow was arrested on Friday last, and brought before 'Squire Payne, at the instance of a female named Worst, charged with an attempt to violate her person; but as the Justice was convinced that no such crime could be estab-lished under the circumstances, the Justice committed him for trial on a charge of tres-pass vi et armie; but on the following day he discovered that no such crime existed, and he was then charged with a breach of the peace and acquitted by a jury.

the season, and an easy market. The Discount-houses did all the approved names offered at the prevailing rates—6210 per cent. per annum—and were desirous of purchasing Eastern and Southern Time-bills, at moderate figures, without having an opportunity to do so, as there are none of consequence in the market.

The stock of Currency is quife low at this season, the surplus, sensity large in July and August, being very small. Indeed, some Bankery Bare very little more Currency on soad than they require to use in their daily business.

Eastern Exchange remained sufficiently firm yesterday at h buying and he premium selling rate, without any important transactions.

Gold continued dull at M buying and Master, premium selling, when dealers have an expectantly, which is rare. Bankers ship their Coin East occasionally, but generally they have such balances there just now as prevent the desire to augment them.

Uncurrent Money was unchanged yesterday, and in New Orleans Exchange and Uncurrent Money there was no alteration.

Floir continued dull yesterday, with rates more irregular than last week, and almost nominal. Fresh-ground extra, from new wheat, was offered with sales of 900 bits. The buroancy of Provisions continued, and holders asked a further advance, which grewnted large operations. Groceries remaited firm, Wheat was still dull, buyers wishing to put down rates, and holders refusing to make concessions. Corn. Hys and Barley were heavy, with little doing, and Oate chosed firm.

Francisco especial alteration in the Money Market to-day. The employment of Money on temporary to-day. The employment of Money on temporary toam, as well as in discounts outside of Bank, is comparatively dull, notwithstanding the marked speculation on the Stock Exchange. So far from this morement increasing the supply of investment stocks on the street, we learn that several considerable parcels of Federal and State Securities have been taken up for out-of-town account, and the temporary loans running uson them at 65-gib per cent. paid off. Four or five different loans of this class were voluntarily paid up this forencou to a single banking firm. On the speculative shares as actively dealt in at the Board, the old-established Brokers on the street somemand Money readily at 580th per cent. There is nothing new in discounts.

The following is an extract from a letter from a merchant in Yorkshire received per Arabis.

You have no idea of the state of the weather; there has not been three consecutive days of fine weather for mentins, and to-day we are glad to set near the fire. Talk about the harvest being late. I don't believe that the finest weather possible, from now till September, can save the cross. There must be an immense deficiency. "Hurrah, then, for the West, you will say. However, as a rule, you know as corn goes up cotton goes down. Money, also, will be dearer, and the home-trade bad, which lead to glutting foreign markets with our goods.

Another letter from England by the earne steamer, lated from London to the New York Commercial.

dated from London to the New York Commercial Advertises, says:

The fall of rain during the six months just ended is believed to have been about double the average, and the peculiarity is that while people are every week assuming that it must end at last, the quantity seems to be more copious each succeeding day. It it is not believed by practical men that any serious results have yet become incritable. The visitation could not have occurred at a less critical time, and there is yet a possibility that a fine July and August may lead to the realization of a harvest of the most satisfactory kind. A great variety of miscellaneous crops have unquestionably derived a great benefit. The point for anxiety lies in the fact that we have arrived at a date at which further prolongation of rain and cold weather would certainly prove fatal. The question of the realization of the lany crop, for instance, is one that must depend upon an immediate change. The accounts by the next two or three packets will therefore be those from which American readers must draw their conclusions.
